When finished, click the "Done" button. You will receive an e-mail confirmation that your subscription has been activated.

Continuing Medical Education: You now have an opportunity to earn CME credits by reading articles in The American Journal of Psychiatry. Three articles in each issue will each comprise a short course for up to 1 hour category 1 CME credit each. The course comprises reading the article and answering three multiple-choice questions with a single correct answer. CME Credit is issued only online. Readers who want credit must subscribe to the AJP Continuing Medical Education Course program (APA Members: $97.00 per year; Nonmember subscribers: $144.00 per year; nonmember nonsubscribers: $180.00 per year). Go to cme.psychiatryonline.org, select The American Journal of Psychiatry at that site, take the course(s) of your choosing, complete the evaluation form, and submit your answers for CME credit. In the online course, correct answers will be highlighted for your reference; there is no minimum threshold score necessary for the credit. A link from the question to the correct answer in context will be highlighted in the associated article. A certificate for each course will be generated upon successful completion.

Cover

The first illustrated surgery textbook was written and illustrated by Serefeddin Sabuncuoglu (1385-1470) who practiced medicine in the city of Amasya in northern Anatolia (see Images in Psychiatry, p. 2071). Sections of this work relating to psychiatry concern treatments for neurotic disorders and forgetfulness. A treatment using heat cauterization is shown.
