New Feature for Residents!

The American Journal of Psychiatry Residents' Journal

A FREE electronic publication produced specifically for psychiatry residents

The Residents' Journal contains special links to full text of the articles from the current American Journal of Psychiatry and to AJP Audio, a downloadable MP3 file featuring highlights from the issue. In addition, this e-mail bulletin contains two exclusive features:

Journal Club Kit

A featured article presented with an overview discussing the reasons for its selection, discussion questions, and an editorial by a senior member of the field placing the article into clinical context.

Educational Article

Case presentation that illustrates a major point in clinical practice or highlights unique treatment approaches.

Plus lively contributions from your fellow residents:

- Instructive cases
- Unique clinical or educational programs
- Perspectives on training and career development
- Discussions arising from journal club discussions

The screenshot shows the 'Residents' Journal' website for June 2008, Volume 3, Issue 6. The page features a 'Contents' section with the following items:

- Finding Medications for the Uninsured: The Pitfalls of Prescribing Samples by Paul Christopher and Noah Philip (2)
- Book Review by Laura Bajor (3)
- Correction (3)

The page also includes a 'Journal Club Kit' section with a featured article on 'The Resident's Journal' and an 'Educational Article' section with a case presentation. The page is signed by Robert Freedman, M.D., and includes a note that the column also appeared in the May 2008 issue.

The Resident's Journal is sent free-of-charge to all psychiatry residents. Anyone interested in being included on the distribution list should contact Lisa Devine, the Residents' Journal staff editor at ajp@psych.org with "Subscribe to Residents' Journal" in the subject line.
